Canadian Art Print's Trish Biddle Steps into Limelight

Oil on Canvas by Biddle Unveiled as Official 2008 'Art of Kentucky Derby'

RICHMOND, BC - November 14, 2007 – Canadian Art Print's (CAP) Trish Biddle has been unveiled as the official artist of the 2008 Kentucky Derby series celebrating next year's 134th renewal of the Kentucky Derby and Kentucky Oaks. The Kentucky Derby is an annual Grade I race and two-week-long festival held in Louisville, Kentucky, on the first Saturday in May.

Based in Dallas Fort Worth, Texas, Biddle studied at the Dallas Institute of Art before beginning her career as an illustrator and textile designer. She was most recently named as the 2007 featured artist at the Cottonwood Art Festival in Texas, a highly prestigious national art event. With over 40 works published internationally and having been sold at national retailers such as Bed Bath and Beyond, Target and T.J. Maxx, Biddle finds herself stepping into the art world limelight.

Her most recent pieces, Reflections I & II are romanticized depictions of a man and woman standing in the rain. They are set to be released in CAP's 2007 Winter release supplement. CAP's Chief Creative Officer, Niki Krieger adds, "We are thrilled to have one of our leading figurative artists' be chosen to represent such a reputable and well established organization. We want to provide an international platform for Trish to showcase her design sense, composition and unique style."
